Statement

Exact transcript from the Daily Chief Union/newspaper, Upper Sandusky, Oh 43351 (Safety Blotter.) : A caller reported a suspicious man in a field with a possible weapon on TH 124 near TH 51 the early morning of July 7. The responding deputies located the man on TH 124 near CH 47 and observed a black sheath in the man's front waistband. The man was confronted at gun point, and deputies discovered the sheath was a flashlight holder. The man was given a ride home after being advised he could not walk along the road in dark clothing at night.
