

https://www.khq.com/news/spokane-police-officer-fired-for-lets-go-brandon-sticker-on-patrol-car/article_77923286-77d9-11ef-b253-e3e5438d1ba3.html

Spokane police officer fired for 'Let's Go Brandon' sticker on patrol car

Daniel Fortin NonStop Local Digital Journalist
Sep 20, 2024

SPOKANE, Wash. — A Spokane police officer has been fired for placing a "Let's Go Brandon" sticker on his patrol car.

This phrase serves as a conservative code that is a vulgar euphemism against Democratic President Joe Biden. According to The Spokesman-Review, the sticker was on the car for eight weeks last year.

Officer Bradley Moon stated that he was unaware of the sticker's political implications. Debbie Novak, with the Washington Coalition for Police Accountability, expressed her disappointment over the situation.

"He had this on his vehicle, where everybody could see it. It's really disappointing. It's really disappointing, and I expect more out of the Spokane Police Department, and I'm sure the citizens of Spokane do," Novak said.

A Spokane Police officer fired after 'let's go brandon' sticker on his patrol car.

The Spokane Police Guild stated it will not be fighting Moon's termination. NonStop Local has attempted to reach Moon for comment but has not yet received a response.

Daniel Fortin