Mr. Maynard,

I have reviewed your correspondence with Lieutenant Jason Marcus (e-mails, attachments etc.) and Lt. Marcus' report describing his investigation of your concerns regarding Corporal Dan Stroup's performance and conduct. The Gillette Police Department acknowledges its role in maintaining effectiveness in carrying out its mission with the public by ensuring personal integrity and discipline in its employees. I am sending you this message with the hope of providing you assurance we have met that obligation. Specific information regarding Lt. Marcus' findings, recommendation or any action taken on personnel matters are confidential and cannot be shared. I know Lt. Marcus provided you with information on the process to file a claim in reference to the department's improper destruction of your property.

Thank you,

Brent R. Wasson, Deputy Chief of Police
