

This is from the body-cam with the hidden witness who told Officer Austin that Mr Coe was following my too closely.

I just transcribed the body-cam from the hidden witness, he only saw the third impact and from his view he got the lane incorrect, so he didn't realize that I was pulling over to stop.

He stated that Mr Coe was at fault.

(0:30) I'm sorry, uh, Southbound. And pretty much the Camry or the Toyota is, (0:36) they're like going super slow in the number two lane. That truck is probably like five feet from (0:40) behind it.

And I don't know if the older gentleman in the red, uh, in the red shirt just decided to (0:46) brake check him, because that's what happened, and the truck slammed right into it. So they're (0:50) all falling closely, and then the Audi just falling behind the truck. Right.

What's, uh, (0:54) can I get your name? Do you mind if we? I just saw it. I know. Um, yeah.

Let me just get your (1:03) first name and phone number. And if my partner has the same statement from the Audi, we probably (1:07) don't need it.

What's your first name? Okay.

Yeah. I'll let you know. He should be fine.

(1:20) They're going to say that the guy in the red is at fault because they're all ganging up on him. (1:24) Right. I mean, technically it would be the truck that he's delegating [tailgating].

Right. Well, (1:28) it sounds like it started further back than that even, so. Yeah, no, I, I, because they were honking.

(1:33) Yeah. The truck honked at the, uh, the guy in the red first, and so I was hearing honking, (1:40) and then when they got to like this point, it kept slowing down, and finally I brake (1:44) checked, and the truck slammed right into it. Okay.

It doesn't look like there's much damage. (1:48) No. Yeah.

Thank you.
